MISSIONS & MOBILIZATION MINISTER

Living Hope desires to reach our community with the gospel of Jesus Christ, not only proclaimed by our words, but also demonstrated through our lives. This desire leads us to develop strategies and programs to meet the needs of our community, with priority given to engaging people through servant evangelism projects. Whenever people experience genuine love through Christ-like service, they become much more receptive to the gospel. In this regard, we will partner with other churches and like-minded organizations in Clarksville to serve our community more effectively and advance the gospel throughout Clarksville and Middle Tennessee.

End Slavery Tennessee

The mission of End Slavery Tennessee is to promote healing of human trafficking survivors and strategically confront slavery in our state, with the vision to create a slave-free Tennessee. Their strategy includes training professionals to increase awareness; aiding victims by serving as a single point of contact for services like medical care, shelter, training, mentoring, legal assistance, and counseling; and preventing human trafficking in the first place by protecting youth and slowing the demand for the services of slaves.

Manna Café Ministries

Kenny and Vicki York founded Manna Café Ministries in 2008 after years of working with the homeless and poor. Initially, they took donated bread and sweets into a local homeless camp, but by the spring of 2010, they had relocated and established Manna Café in Clarksville, TN. Since that time, they and their team of volunteers have served tens of thousands of hot meals and distributed more than a million pounds of non-perishable food to area families and individuals. Manna Café's methods and programs have expanded over the years, but the mission is still the same: to restore hope, love, and dignity to the broken and downcast.

In North America, our strategy manifests in directly planting churches and partnering with other church plants in strategic urban centers throughout the five major regions as identified by NAMB (South, Midwest, Northeast, West, and Canada). A focus on these five regions allows us to be strategic and responsive to the diverse needs across North America, factoring in demographics, geographical challenges, and spiritual realities.

Kevin & Jenn Hasenack – Calvary Church: Denver, Denver, CO

Calvary Church is a new church plant dedicated to making joyful, passionate disciples of Jesus Christ. They hope to reach Denver not because of its growth potential, but because they see a growing city that has lost its way. Calvary Church desires to reach the broken and the neglected with a gospel-centered message about our Savior's love, establishing a loving community to help the people of Denver grow in their faith.

Joe & Megan Reid – River City Church, Ft. Collins, CO

River City Church is a new church in Fort Collins. Our desire is to grow a community of Jesus-followers with a common mission in life. They are now meeting on Wednesday nights to discuss future plans.

Ben Fleet – Renaissance Church, Montreal

Renaissance Church is a new church plant starting in Little Burgundy, a quarter of Montreal, Quebec, Canada. The church currently meets once a month for a worship gathering and are actively building a launch team of men and women who yearn to partner with them to see the gospel of Jesus impact Little Burgundy through the planting of gospel communities.
REACHING THE WORLD

We understand that the Great Commission does not limit itself to our local context or even the boundaries of our nations, but extends to the very ends of the earth. As such, we desire to engage, equip, and empower mission teams from Living Hope Baptist Church to plant new churches and strengthen existing churches throughout the world, placing emphasis on engaging unreached people groups. Through all of our efforts, we strive to partner with other churches, church plants, and like-minded organizations, with priority given to Southern Baptist entities and affiliates. Existing relationships will be leveraged to this end, while also seeking to develop new relationships in strategic locations.

Buenos Aires is the second largest metropolitan area in South America. Almost 14 million people live in the greater Buenos Aires area. That is 30 percent of the nation of Argentina’s total inhabitants. The center of the city is called Capital Federal, and is composed of 48 barrios or “boroughs”, and the majority of the people who live here claim to be Catholic but truly have no connection to Christ at all. The Baptist churches of Buenos Aires need partners to come alongside them as they seek to revitalize churches and plant new ones among the least reached people group segments in Buenos Aires.

Since 2014, Living Hope has worked in the Mexican state of Querétaro with IMB missionaries and national church planters, where less than 2% of the population is Evangelical Christian. The capital, Querétaro City, has repeatedly been recognized as the safest city in Mexico and as one of the most dynamic in Latin America. Through activities such as sports camps, medical clinics, and personal evangelism, we join with local missionaries, pastors, and churches to reach this underserved area with the gospel of Jesus Christ.
